Tailored Brands
Customs Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (CTPAT) Statement of Support

Tailored Brands, which includes the brands Men's Wearhouse, Jos. A. Bank, Moores and K&G, recognizes the importance of preserving the integrity and security of our global supply chain. As a proud member of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Customs Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (CTPAT) program since 2006, Tailored Brands remains fully committed to upholding the high security standards in our operations.

As a Tier 3 CTPAT member, Tailored Brands maintains and implements a comprehensive, multi-layered security program that is aligned with CTPAT Minimum Security Criteria standards. This includes strict enforcement of zero tolerance for forced labor and child labor, robust access controls, enhanced procedural and physical security efforts, and compliance with customs regulations on trade security.

Our commitment to CTPAT applies to all our employees and business partners, fostering a safe and secure work culture and environment that supports the security of U.S. borders and the international trade community.
